

The Independent Travel Training process

Training from start to finish

- Initial assessment successful
- Parent/carer complete relevant paperwork
- ITTU register individual for Open Awards qualification

- Flexible, bespoke training commences – with fade out support
- Relevant daily recording forms completed for each session
 - Evidence portfolio completed for qualification
- Competency assessed throughout each session and evidenced
 - Independent observations take place and evidenced

- When a trainee has completed their specific route independently – a minimum of 3 times – a final assessment of the trainee's skills will take place

- Review held with the trainee and parent/carer (where appropriate)
- Upon all parties being satisfied, the trainee will be signed off and training is complete
- A certificate of achievement will be awarded (at the annual ITTU awards evening)
 - You will be an independent traveller!
